GAME RECAP (GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE)

(GREEN BAY) - The 1927 Packer model wheeled into action for the first time this season Sunday afternoon at the City stadium and proceeded to give such a good exhibition of football that Johnny Bryan's Milwaukee Badgers were bowled over to the tune of 34 to 0. This new Packer machine with seven new "features" added functioned so efficiently that the red sweatered invaders never made a single first down and not once did they have possession of the ball in Packer territory past midfield. The day was more fit for a bathing beauty contest than gridiron pastiming as the blazing rays of Old Sol, who was out in all his glory, chased the temperature reading well up to the sizzling point and made condition very un-footballish for players and spectators alike. It was a shirt-sleeved crowd that witnessed the engagement and the fans who occupied seats in the north stands are probably using sunburn lotion today.

PRAISE ENLARGED STADIUM

The enlarged City stadium was given a thorough once over by the spectators and much commendation was expressed. The additional entrances made it easier to handle the last minute rush. The canvas barrier didn't work out so bad and by next week when the lower edges are fastened down so as to prevent flapping by the wind, the "peeping toms" outside the park won't be able to get an eyeful of what is going on inside. The crowd gathered early and when the gates opened there was the usual hundred yard dash staged by the early birds to get choice seats in the bleachers. The Legion band togged out in their natty new uniforms uncorked a number of tunes before the game started and the usual "On, Wisconsin" rent the air when the Packers trotted out on the field for their pre-game practice. The Milwaukee club followed soon afterward and they, too, got a good hand from the crowd.

GOLD PLATED HEADGUARDS

The Packers, with their gold plated headguards and brilliant gold and blue jerseys, made an imposing picture as they pranced around the field waiting the call to action from Referee Cub Buck. Preliminaries were over with quickly and it wasn't too long before the whistle tooted and the 1927 football season was on. Milwaukee received the opening kickoff and the play during the first quarter was fairly even up although the Packers were marking time and waiting for an opening for a touchdown, many of which resulted before the final whistle blew. Young Mr. Murphy, who got his footballing at Superior Normal, was about the whole show for Milwaukee during the first quarter. Murphy peeled off several man-sized punts that zoomed through the air for 60 yards plus and this bit of exceptional punting offset the ground gained by the Packers on straight footballing. The first thrill of the game came when Lavvie Dilweg grabbed a toss from Red Dunn and zig-zagged his way down the sideline and then through a broken field for what looked like a touchdown. However, the cheers turned to groans when Referee Buck brought the ball back, claiming Dilweg had stepped on the sideline during his dash down the field.

O'DONNELL SCORES TOUCHDOWN

On the third play of the second quarter, Dunn started one way with the ball, then he reversed his field, side-stepped a couple of "aliens" and shot a perfect pass to Dick O'Donnell on the Milwaukee goal line for the first touchdown of the combat. Dunn added the extra point. The Packers found the touchdown habit so much to their liking that it wasn't long before they put across another score. Once again "well done" Dunn zipped the ball through the zone to Lavvie Dilweg, who made a fancy catch and legged it for the area in front of the goal posts. Dunn kicked the goal. Between these two touchdowns, the injury jinx struck the Packers a crushing blow as Fahey, the Milwaukee end, clipped Dick Flaherty and the veteran Bay end was carried off the playing field with a badly injured knee. It is doubtful if Dick will be able to play for at least a month anyway.

HEARDEN IN LIMELIGHT

Bryan's troopers seemed to get their wind back during the 15-minute halftime intermission and for a time they repulsed the Packer attack when the third quarter got underway. However, the visitors couldn't do anything on the offensive and they were soon retreating doggedly towards the goal. Basing grabbed a pass and skidded to Milwaukee's 3-yard marker. Here the Bryanites held tight for a couple of downs and even refused a penalty on the third rush, figuring they could stop the Bays on the last thrust. But Tom Hearden fooled 'em. He cut across behind Milwaukee's goal line and grabbed a well times pass from Red Dunn for a touchdown. Just to add spike to the engagement, Dunn showed the fans that it was possible for him to miss a goal after a touchdown. That was all the scoring in the third quarter but the Packers added more in the final period. After working the ball well down in Milwaukee territory, Lewellen pulled a duplicate of Tom Hearden's touchdown and Dunn resumed his goal kicking activities.

RUN FOR TOUCHDOWN

The final score was a thriller. Milwaukee threw precaution to the winds and Johnny Bryan began hurling a lot of prayer passes around in hopes that one of them would connect and a touchdown might result. It did bit with reverse English. Rex Enright squeezed one of these Badger tosses and scampered 34 yards to be exact on his touchdown voyage. En route, the former Notre Dame star shook off a number of would-be tackler en route and then straight armed two others. It was a brilliant piece of work. Aside from Eddie Kotal, who is on the hospital list with a knee injury, all the Packers had a chance to help spank the Badgers. The new players showed plenty of class while the veterans performed in the same capable style they always have.

BULLETIN

SEP 12 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - According to Dr. W.W. Kelly, Packer team physician, there is a good chance that the injury to Dick Flaherty will not lay him up as long as was expected. "The injury to Flaherty's knee was first thought to be extremely serious," Dr. Kelly said, "but X-ray pictures disclose the fact that no bones were broken. However, it is bad enough as it is. Dick is resting comfortable at St. Mary's hospital and I think it is quite possible that he may be in shape to take part in the game against the Chicago Bears on Oct. 2."

DAUGHERTY, CRACK ILLINOIS FULLBACK, SIGNS BAY CONTRACT

SEPT 12 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Russell "Pug" Daugherty, who played fullback at Illinois for two years, is a newest addition to the Green Bay Packers. Daugherty, in response to a telegram from the Packer management, made a hurried trip here from his home in Streator, Ill., and was among those present on the Packers' bench at the Milwaukee game Sunday. Immediately after the argument, he put his name on the dotted line. The former Illinois star hadn't planned to play pro football this season but the football bug hit him when he got the Packers' wire and it didn't take him long to arrange for a leave of absence from his business connections. Daugherty left for his home last night to get his football duds together and he will be back here either Wednesday or Thursday. It was Daugherty, McElwain and Britton who paved the way for Red Grange in 1925 to make football history. Last season, Daugherty was the bone crusher of the Illinois backfield and his line plunging scored many a touchdown for Zuppke & Co. He practically won the Chicago game single-handed for the Suckers. Next to Herb Joesting of Minnesota, he was considered the best fullback in the Western conference last year. Daugherty will go about 185 lbs. in fighting trim. Aside from his line plunging ability, Pug is a first class receiver of a forward as his basketball ability comes in handy in this respect. He was a varsity cage man at Illinois for three years and last winter captained the quintet. Daugherty was placed on nearly every one of the all Big Ten basketball selections. The Packer management expects to be able to announce two more additions to the club this week. Negotiations have practically been closed

Sneeze Achiu and Cabrinha Among Gridiron Stars Who Will Face Packers, Sunday

CHINESE AND HAWAIIAN BACKFIELDERS WITH DAYTON

SEPT 13 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Something out of the ordinary will be on tap Sunday when the Dayton club plays here in the opening game of the NFL as the Triangles have a Chinese and Hawaiian in the backfield and, according to college records, both of 'em are first-class footballers. "Sneeze" Achiu, a Chinese, played three years of varsity football at the University of Dayton and got away with flying colors. He was also a track man and was credited with stepping the century in 10 seconds flat. Achia is a first-class field runner and splendid receiver of the forward pass...BEAT HASKELL INDIANS: His partner is August Cabrinha, Hawaiian, who was Achia's teammate at Dayton U. The "Islander" bobbed into gridiron fame in 1925 when playing against the Haskell Indians, he nabbed a pass and dashed 78 yards down the field for the only touchdown of the game. Achia and his side kick, Cabrinha, were the pass luminaries for Dayton U two years running. The Chinese does the majority of the tossing with the Hawaiian on the receiving end. Two other Dayton U products are also playing with the Triangles and, according to Manager Redelle, before the 1927 pro season is history, these husky forwards will be listed among the best on the dollar and cents gridiron...GUARD AND TACKLE PAIR: Bill Belanich and Aubrey Strossnider played side by side at Dayton for the seasons of 1924, '25, '26. Strossnider is a guard while Belanich holds down a tackle berth. These two gridgers graduated from the U in June and the Triangle management worked fast to get their names on a contract as a number of other clubs were after them. Both these footballers are in the 200-pound class and they are said to be mighty fast for big fellows. Belanich was "so fast" in 1925 that Grantland Rice, noted sport writer, put him on his all-American team at a tackle position. The Dayton club has been out practicing since late in August. The majority of the players have been given jobs in the Delco factory at Dayton and the early closing hours, coupled with the daylight savings, enabled the Triangles to get in lengthy drills after working hours...AFTER WILDCAT WILSON: There is a chance that "Wildcat" Wilson, the sensational Pacific coast halfback, may be with the Triangles but Manager Redelle is not in a position to guarantee it as yet. It seems that the Wildcat is dickering with several clubs and he is holding out while the dollar piles grow with each new offer. Last reports had it that Wilson would announce his decision on Wednesday as to which club in the NFL he would play with. The Dayton club is one of the pioneer spokes in the NFL. The same management has been holding the reins for a number of years. Carl Storck, treasurer of the NFL, is connected with the Triangles in an advisory capacity. The Triangles have only shown in Green Bay once before. That was in 1925 and Daytonians put up a stubborn battle but were forced to accept defeat when the Bays scored a touchdown in the final seconds of play.

FRANK MAYER, NOTRE DAME GUARD, JOINS PACKER SQUAD

SEPT 14 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Frank Mayer, one of the best guards ever turned out from Knute Rockne's school of football at Notre Dame, is the most recent addition to the Green Bay Packers. Mayer reported Tuesday morning and immediately jumped into togs for the workout. He is built something along the lines of George Abramson although somewhat heavier than the Packer star of 1925. Mayer will weigh about 215 pounds. He has been working outside all summer and right now is in shape to perform. His hometown is at Glencoe, Minn...HIS OLD TEAMMATES: The former Notre Dame ace will be right at home with the Packers because in his "rah rah" days he played with Tom Hearnden, Rex Enright and Red Smith, who is slated to be on hand for practice next Tuesday. Guy Chamberlain of the Chicago Cardinals camped on the heels of Mayer for quite awhile but the Rockne product decided to come here and chase the cowhide with his old teammates. It is lucky that reinforcements are arriving for the Big Bay Blues because the hospital list is sort of "crowded" for this time of the year. Dick Flaherty will be in bed for at least another week with his injured knee. Tom Hearnden has a sore spot in his shoulder and is not likely to be seen in action against Dayton on Sunday. Eddie Kotal's bad knee is still giving him plenty of trouble while Basing's sore ankle has delegated him to the sidelines...PETE JACKSON BETTER: Pete Jackson is pretty well recovered from his sick spell and the former Missouri star should be ready to go on Sunday although he is still a bit underweight. "Pug" Daugherty, former Illinois halfback, is due in here today and should be out for his first practice on Thursday. The Packer management is still on the trail of one more stellar back. Negotiations are underway with two topnotch footballers but it probably won't be until the last of the week before arrangements are completed with either one of them. In the meantime, the Big Bay Blues are going through their "daily dozen" on the field behind East high school and the young army of fans who take in the workouts every morning are noticing a much improved brand of play...EXPECT TROUBLE SUNDAY: Cap. Lambeau is building a sound foundation for what looks like the Packers' greatest team and the squad will look a whole lot better in Sunday's encounter against the Dayton Triangles. The Bays are expecting plenty of trouble from the Ohioans and extra long workouts are being held this week. Tickets for the Dayton game will be on sale tonight at the usual places about town. A brisk demand is forecast as the brilliant showing of the Big Bay Blues against Milwaukee has put a lot more fire under the interest pot. Persons reserving seats for the Dayton game must pick them up before Saturday evening as the Packer ticket men are going to gather in all uncalled for tickets. A ticket office will be open in The Press-Gazette building from 9:30 a.m. until noon Sunday.

BILL BELANICH

Belanich captained the Dayton 'U' team in 1926 and the year before Grantland Rice placed him on his all-American selection at a tackle position. He tips the beam at 210 pounds yet gets down the field under punts as fast as the ends.

DAYTON TRIANGLES COMING HERE SUNDAY WITH CLASSY TEAM OF PRO FOOTBALLERS

SEPT 15 (Dayton) - The Dayton Triangles will leave here Saturday morning for Green Bay, Wis. where on Sunday they will open the National league football season against the Packers, one of the strongest clubs in Joe Carr's circuit. This will be the only National league game of the day. The Triangle squad will probably be made up of twenty players, Coach Storck and Manager Redelle. This year's outfit is composed mainly of new material although there are just enough veterans to give a proper balance. Practically all of the player are employed here by the General Motors corporation...THREE GOOD TACKLES: Beanich of Dayton U, Becker of Dennison, Zimmerman of Purdue and Lewis of Monmouth are the tackle candidates. According to Coach Storck, the first two players will be in the starting lineup. Graham of Pittsburgh, Reiter of West Virginia Wesleyan, Deweese of Brown and Brown of the Dayton U are the guards. Both Graham and Reiter have seen service on the professional gridiron before. Zip Joseph of Miami and Kinderdine, a pro veteran of six years, are slated for duty at center. It is a tossup which player will draw the starting assignment although the chances favor Joseph because he is a faster man on the pass defense and the Triangles know that they will have to face a varied air attack...MAHRT AT QUARTERBACK: Eddie Mahrt will call the signals at quarter. He has been with the Triangles for three years and is rated as one of the best field generals on the postgraduate position. The Triangles have plenty of class behind the line. Abbott, one of the all-time stars at Syracuse, will lug the cowhide from the fullback's post while he will be supported in the starting lineup by Achiu, Chinese, and Cabrinha, Hawaiian, at the halves. Whitelaw of Geneva college, who starred against Harvard in 1926, is sure to see plenty of service as a back along with Tares of Penn State, Sillin of Western Maryland and Roll of Nebraska...TWO STAR BOOTSMITH: The Dayton club has two first class bootsmiths in Abbott and Mahrt. Abbott is the punter while Mahrt does the place and dropkicking. The Triangles have developed a shifty offense around

TRIANGLE ACE

'SNEEZE' ACHIU

An honest-to-goodness Chinaman will be seen in action with the Dayton Triangles at the city stadium Sunday, when the Ohio club rubs elbows with the Packers.

His name is 'Sneeze' Achiu and he plays halfback. The Chinese is a flashy halfback and, while at Dayton 'U', he delivered a flashy brand of football.

an air drive which they hope will produce considerable yardage when they tackle the Packers in their own backyard on Sunday.

PACKER TICKET COMES HIGH FOR R.P. TRIBBEY

SEPT 16 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - For $8.38 one ought to secure a pretty good ticket to the Dayton-Green Bay game on Sunday. So believes Ralph P. Tribbey of the Press-Gazette linotype force. Of course, only $1.50 of this is the price of the ticket; the remaining $6.88 is court costs. Tribbey stopped in front of Coffeen's, on E. Walnut St., yesterday afternoon, to buy his ticket. He stayed more than the prescribed fifteen minutes, and, as a result, contributed $6.88 to the city coffers in Police Court this morning. Nevertheless, he's going to see the game Sunday, and will yell "Hold 'em, Packers!" with a firm belief that he'll get his money's worth if the Green Bay team does just that.

BOBBIE CAHN TO REFEREE DAYTON-GREEN BAY GAME

SEPT 16 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Bobbie Cahn of Chicago has been chosen to referee the opening game of the NFL season which will be played Sunday afternoon at the City stadium between the Green Bay Packers and Dayton Triangles, according to information received here from President Joe F. Carr of Columbus, Ohio. R.E. St. John of Chicago will do the umpiring while Chester Wiley of Indiana has been selected as head linesman. All of these officials have worked here before in pro football games. Cahn is well liked by the fans as his jumping-jack antics on the playing field always gives the crowd a laugh...START AT 2 P.M. SHARP: Sunday's game will get underway promptly at 2 o'clock in order to have the contest finished in time to allow the Ohioans to catch the late afternoon C. and N.W. train for Chicago. Railway officials have promised to hold the passenger a few minutes if necessary. According to reports from the ticket sales booth around town, there is a good demand for ducats for Sunday's game. The fans are expecting a first class combat as the Triangles are coming here with an outfit that will give any spoke in the wheel plenty of trouble...FOUR PLAYERS INJURED: The Packers won't have their full strength on the field for the game as neither Flaherty nor Kotal can possibly play and there isn't much chance of either Hearnden or Basing getting into action on the chalk marked field on account of injuries. However, the rest of the players are all reported in the pink and the squad has been getting in some stiff workouts despite the torrid spell that has held forth all week. It didn't take Mayer, the guard from Notre Dame, very long to find his place in the machine and he probably will start Sunday's game against the Triangle. The appearance of the Chinese, Achiu, and the Hawaiian, Cabrinha, in the Dayton backfield has kicked up a lot of interest among the fans who are eagerly awaiting the chance to see the "out-of-the-ordinary" gridiron stars do their stuff. Football records for the past three years show that both these gridgers did more than their share in putting Dayton U prominently on the gridiron map of Ohio colleges.

ONLY LEAGUE GAME

SEPT 16 (Columbus) - One game, that being between the Dayton Triangles and Green Bay Packers, will usher in the 1927 NFL season on Sunday. President Joe Carr of the National league has appointed Cahn of Chicago, St. John of Chicago and Wiley of Indiana to officiate. In speaking about professional football for 1927, Carr said: "I think we will enjoy our most successful year. The league has been cut down to a dozen clubs and this means that the competition will be keener than ever before as each one of the twelve teams has greatly strengthened its battle front. The game at Green Bay should be a good one as Dayton has a much improved team and from what I have heard about the Packers, this splendid Green Bay eleven is better than ever before - and this is saying a whole lot."

PRO FOOTBALL GOSSIP

SEPT 16 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Joe Carr, president of the National league, thinks this is going to be pro football's banner year. Reports from around the circuit show a much increased interest in the game, according to the league prexy...There will be twelve spokes in the National loop this season. The circuit is made up of the N.Y. Yanks and Giants, Chicago Bears and Cards, Providence, Pottsville, Cleveland, Buffalo, Philadelphia, Dayton, Duluth and Green Bay...The Philadelphia Yellowjackets have secured the services of Charlie Moran as coach. Moran is the football mentor that put Centre college on the gridiron map. Last year he was in charge of the Bucknell college eleven...Cleveland is building its hopes around Benny Friedman, the Michigan all-American footballer. Owner Brandt is going the limit to place a winner on the field and he has rounded up a number of collegiate luminaries...The Red

AUGGIE CABRINHA

Cabrinha is the Hawaiian member of the Dayton club billed for appearance here Sunday at the City stadium in a National league football game against the Green Bay Packers. He plays halfback and is an expert receiver of forward passes.

Grange-Pyle combination will play their home games at the Yank stadium in New York. Grange's troopers are to travel during the first half of the season and won't be seen on Broadway until early in November...Jerry Corcoran, who ran the Columbus club in the National loop for a number of years, is the "father" of an Ohio State pro league. Short railroad jumps between the eight cities will tend to cut down the traveling overhead...Ernie Nevers is feeling fit again and will be ready to step into his fullback job when the whistle blows for the Duluth Eskimos. The former Golden West star was operated on for appendicitis in August. He has recovered rapidly...Sneeze Achiu has signed his contract to perform with the Dayton Triangles. Achiu is the Chinese football wonder who played stellar ball for Dayton university. He is also credited with being a 10 second dash artist...Johnny Bryan is running an independent club in Milwaukee this year but he has booked a number of games with league teams. Bryan's outfit is being backed by the Eagles. A week from Sunday, Milwaukee plays against Duluth...Jimmy Conzelman has moved again. This fall finds him as gridiron boss for the Providence Steamrollers. Sonnenberg and Lynch, two stars of the 1926 Detroit Panthers squad, are also playing with the Rhode Island eleven...A young army of players have reported for practice at Pottsville. The Maroons' management has some 33 players under contract and included are a number of gridirons who have seen a lot of professional football...Dim Batterson is going to have a hand in running the Buffalo eleven this year. A house cleaning of the 1926 Bisons has been underway for quite a while as the Buffalo owners intend to have nearly a new team on the field...Guy Chamberlain will coach the Chicago Cardinals this fall and, if the former Nebraskan lives up to his record of other years, Chris O'Brien will have to set a flag pole from which to float the championship banner...Wilbur Henry, veteran pro gridder, and Tut Imlay, who flashed so brilliantly for the Los Angeles club in 1926, will do their gridironing for the New York Giants. Both these players should greatly strengthen Doc March's tribe...George Halas and Dutch Sternaman, co-bosses of the Chicago Bears, feel confident that their Bruins are going to have a lot to say about the championship. Over a dozen of the 1926 veterans will be back in togs again...The Green Bay Packers pried the lid off the football season last Sunday by tumbling the Milwaukee Eagles, 34 to 0. Bryan & Co. couldn't get started and not once during the game did they have the oval in scoring territory...Johnny Bud, who captained the Yellowjackets in 1926, has accepted terms from the Pottsville Maroons. Budd was a sweet working guard and his ability to follow the ball gave him a high rating in professional football ranks...In Roddy Lamb, Ike Mahoney and Swede Erickson, the Chicago Cardinals have three veteran backs ready to lug the cowhide. The Cards have several fullback prospects lined up to complete an all star backfield quintet...Connaughton, the "man mountain" who gained all-American recognition at Georgetown in 1926, will play with the Yellowjackets. Coach Moran expects the big fellow will be one of the pillars of his forward wall...Bill Belanach, star tackle at Dayton U for three seasons, has been added to the battle front of the Triangles. Belanach is a two hundred pounder and is known for his aggressiveness. He is expected to go over big...The Green Bay Packers secured a pair of sterling gridiron stars via the purchase route. Lavvie Dilweg, end, was purchased from Milwaukee while Red Dunn, quarterback, was secured from the Cards for a cash consideration.

DAYTON END

ART FENNER

Art Fenner is one of the veterans on the Dayton team. He plays an end position and he probably is as good a 'wing-man' as there is in the National league. Fenner is a good pass snatcher while, on the defense it is pretty hard to circle his extremity.

DAYTON TRIANGLES PLAY PACKERS HERE SUNDAY

OPENING GAME OF NFL SEASON BOOKED FOR CITY STADIUM

SEPT 17 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The Green Bay Packers will usher in the 1927 NFL pennant chase Sunday afternoon at the City stadium by tackling the Dayton Triangles, who are one of the most improved clubs in the revamped twelve-spoke wheel. Gridiron hostilities will start right on the dot at 2 p.m. as the Ohioans want to get out of here about 4:15 on the C. & N.W. train for Chicago in order to make their train connection enabling them to reach Dayton in time for work Monday morning...CAHN WILL REFEREE: The game will be handled pretty fast because Bobbie Cahn, the well known Chicago referee, who is popular with Green Bay fans, will be tooting the referee's whistle. Cahn is on top of the ball every minute and he always keeps the teams stepping along at top speed. St. John, another Chicagoan, will do the umpiring. Chet Wiley, of Indiana, has been named head linesman. With a better brand of football weather on tap, every indication points to a large crowd. Tickets have been moving fast since they were put on sale Wednesday and there has been a heavy demand from out-of-town customers...PICK UP ALL TICKETS: Packer ticket men will pick up all uncalled for pasteboards when they make the rounds of the places having ducats on sale Saturday night. However, a ticket office in The Press-Gazette building will be open Sunday morning from 9:30 until noon to handle the out-of-towners and those who delay until the eleventh hour to purchase their seats. The ticket booths and the gates at the City stadium will be opened promptly at 12:30. No general admission tickets to Packer games are sold elsewhere than at the stadium and generally the line of bleacherites forms at least an hour before it is time to do business...LEGION AND CITY POLICE: The stage is all set to handle a big crowd at the City stadium. City and Legion police will patrol the "fence zone" and ward off the gate crashers while the crew of ushers and ticket takers are all set for business following their practice session last Sunday. The American Legion band, which made such a hit with the crowd at the Milwaukee game, will again be on the job to "distribute" the music necessary for the gridiron fray. It is quite possible that between halves the musicians will "two step" around the playing field to some scrappy tune. Dayton will put a shift aggregation against the Packers. When the Triangles decided to remain the National league, Manager Redelle and Coach Storck made a thorough housecleaning of their 1926 club. Only four veterans were retained. These are Fenner, end; Kinderdine, center; Mahrt, quarterback, and Abbott, fullback. Each one of these players have long ranked high in postgraduate gridiron circles...MANY NEW PLAYERS: In 1926, Dayton U had a corking good college team. It won the championship of the Ohio conference and swept clean all of its opponents from the Pennsylvania circuit. The Triangle management got busy in June and when some of these stars graduated their next step was to sign a pro football contract. Belanich, Cabrinha, Achiu and Brown are first-class griders and they are all husky enough to stand the pro game gaff. Achiu, the Chinese, and Cabrinha, the Hawaiian, should be two of the best attractions in the postgraduate game. These two "foreigners" filled the halfback jobs at Dayton U for three years...BAYS ARE HANDICAPPED: The Packers will be handicapped in Sunday's game as four of the players, Flaherty, Kotal, Hearnden and Basing, are on the injured list. To increase the gloom, a wire from Pug Daugherty, the star Illinois fullback, brought the news that he was unable to get a leave of absence from the corporation employing him and that he had decided not to play pro football. Daugherty signed his contract here last Sunday after the Milwaukee game and had promised to report Thursday morning. However, there is a lot of fight in the Big Bay Blues and the players that are fit can be counted on to tear against the Daytonians and make it pretty interesting for them while they are strutting their stuff at the City stadium. Some "reinforcements" are en route for the Packers but it is doubtful if the "shock troops" will reach here in time to be of any use for the Dayton affair.

BULLETIN

SEPT 17 (Dayton) - As the Dayton Triangles boarded a train for Green Bay, Wis., this morning, Coach Storck announced that he had signed Earl Britton, former Illinois star, and that the famous gridder who always "cleared the way" for Red Grange in their "rah rah" days would be in uniform against the Packers Sunday.
