PACKERS BEAT MILWAUKEE 10-7, WIN STATE PRO TITLE

*Mighty Green Bay Team In Splendid Victory; Lambeau
Scores Winning Touchdown*

GAME RECAP (GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE)

(MILWAUKEE) - The mighty Green Bay Packers backed by a thousand loyal rooters, headed by the famous Lumberjack band, sewed up the Wisconsin pro football championship here on Sunday at Athletic park when they defeated the Milwaukee Badgers by the score of 10 to 7 in a sensational exhibition of pigskin chasing which thrilled the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a professional game in this city. Close to 6,000 spectators were in attendance. It was one of the greatest games ever played on a Milwaukee gridiron. With the title at stake, both teams were keyed up to the highest pitch and they battled hammer and tongs from first to last whistle.

LIKE COLLEGE GAMES

The contest took on all the earmarks of a collegiate encounter. Both Milwaukee and Green Bay had cheer leaders on the job and defiant yells of the rival rooting delegations reechoed back and forth across the gridiron. The wonderful following of Green Bay opened the eyes of Milwaukee. The Green Bay section was filled to overflowing and pep ruled supreme. One of the veteran Milwaukee sport writers glimpsed the Bay crowd and then remarked to one of his associates in the press box: "No wonder they call the Bay the greatest football town of its size in the country. That gang has more pep than a bunch of college freshmen."

BAND WELL RECEIVED

The Lumberjack band more than lived up to advance notices. When they came out of the dugout, a roar of applause made them welcome. The Bay band marched around the field, cutting loose with popular tunes and when they got back to the home plate, they played "On Wisconsin" while the entire assemblage rose to their feet. The band tooted their horns all during the game while the leaders cut all sorts of fancy capers. Mulligan Seroogy amused the crowd with his fancy steps.

WILL BE REMEMBERED

The game will long be remembered by all those who saw. It was a fighting, smashing, crashing Packer team battling against a combination who were determined to score a victory. Jimmy Conzelman had his club right on edge for the fray and they played wonderful football but not quite good enough for the Green Bay eleven which right now stands with the best in the country. One of those breaks in the game nearly cost the Packers dearly. George Downer, who was to umpire, failed to return from Madison in time for the contest and Pete Schultz, a Milwaukee Normal graduate, was selected by Manager McGurk of the Badgers to fill Downer's place. Towards the close of the second quarter, Schultz pulled an "Eckersall". At least, that's what the Packers claimed. The ball was out on Green Bay's 30 yard line. Three time, Milwaukee rushed with but scant gain. Winkelman stepped back for a placekick, with Conzelman squatting to hold the pigskin. The pass was low and Conzelman grabbed the pill and started on a mad dash across the field. He stopped dead in his tracks and hurled the oval down to Green Bay's 12 yard line where one of his teammates was set. Gavin knocked down the pass but umpire Schultz ruled interference and a heated argument cropped out as the ball was given to Milwaukee on the spot of the alleged interference. After much discussion, the Packers continued to play. Milwaukee, however, was held for downs and Buck punted out of danger. Right at this stage of the game, Milwaukee showed its best offense. A forward pass and several first downs put the pigskin back in the shadow of Green Bay's goal posts and Dinger Doane was equal to the occasion. Three times the former Tufts All-American star bumped the Green Bay line, finally going over for a touchdown. Winkelman kicked the goal. Shortly after the next kickoff the whistle blew for halftime. And Milwaukee's scoring was through for the day.

BUCK KICKS FIELD GOAL

Cub Buck kicked his usual field goal for the Packers in the first quarter. After the opening kickoff, the ball zig-zagged up and down the field with the Bays having much the best of the yardage gained. On the 30 yard line, Buck sailed one of his twisters down the field and it plunked into Conzelman's arms and out again. A Packer covered and it was Green Bay's ball, well within the Milwaukee territory. Several plays were made and the oval maneuvered directly in front of the uprights. Buck stepped back to the 30 yard line and sailed the oval through the uprights. When the teams lined up for the kickoff in the second half, it was a determined Packer eleven. The Bays were fighting harder than ever for a victory. It wasn't long before the Packer offensive began working nicely. Then came the play that sent the Green Bay contingent wild with joy.

LAMBEAU MAKES TOUCHDOWN

From a regular formation, Mathys called for a signal for a screen pass and it worked nicely. Getting the ball from Neimann, Mathys covered, took three steps backward while the pack plunged straight through the line. Charlie, cool as a cucumber, took his time and then hurled the ball clean as a whip to Captain Lambeau, who was about 5 yards in front of the scrimmage line. Then Lambeau started his touchdown run. And what a gallop it was. He shook off one tackle, sidestepped another and then smashed straight through Jimmy Conzelman and traveled for a score. It was a beautiful piece of footballing. Buck kicked the goal, making the score 10 to 7.

CONZELMAN IS DESPERATE

For the remainder of the game, the Packers held the upper hand. Conzelman driven to desperation, tried pass after pass with but indifferent success. The Bays were watching the Milwaukee leader like a hawk and he didn't get very far with his aerial attack. When the final whistle blew, the Green Bay contingent went wild with delight and the Packers were the heroes of the hour. While across the field, the Milwaukee squad limped their way to the training quarters, heart sore and weary, with Conzelman crying like a child. Captain Conzelman, Dinger Doane and Erickson basked in the limelight for Milwaukee. Conzelman played superb football despite his fumbled punt and the missing of Lambeau on his touchdown dash.

NEVER LOOKED BETTER

The Packers never looked better. Each game they seem to improve. Jab Murray, Hayes and Wheeler on the ends dumped the Badgers for many a loss. Buck and Dewey Lyle performed brilliantly at the tackle while Woodin, Niemann and Gardner, the center trio, were in there fighting like demons at every stage of the game. Charlie Mathys was never seen to better advantage at quarter. Mills and Basing displayed their wares nicely at left half; Gavin showed his class at fullback while Captain Lambeau played the best game of his career at right half. The Bay leader went even better against Racine and his touchdown run was super football.

Pro Football Championship of Northwest Is at Stake; Invaders Have Fast Eleven

DULUTH KELLYS HERE SUNDAY AGAINST PACKERS

NOV 20 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - A game which will decide the pro football championship of the Northwest will be staged in Green Bay at Bellevue park on Sunday when the Packers give battle to the Duluth Kellys. Sunday's game will be called at 2 o'clock. It will be the "No. 7" home game on the Packers' schedule. Holders of box seats must make use of their coupons marked "No. 7" as they will not be good for the Thanksgiving Day contest here, if one is scheduled here...SUPREME IN NORTHWEST: Duluth comes here with the undisputed championship of Minnesota and Upper Michigan. The Kellys dumped the Minneapolis Marines twice; scored two wins over the famous Ironwood club; and took Hibbing into camp. Duluth also has victories over the Akron Indians and Hammond professionals. The Packers tucked away the Badger state championship in Milwaukee on Sunday. There is only one more game scheduled in the state race, Milwaukee playing at Racine on Thanksgiving Day and the team that wins won't climb enough in the percentage table to overtake the Packers. Duluth is coming here with a corking good football machine and reports from the Minnesota city have it that the Kellys are determined to take a fall out of the Packers...STERNAMAN HEADS TEAM: "Little Joe" Sternaman, former Illinois star, is coach and captain of the Northerners. He is a dropkicker extraordinary. Sternaman has been bothered with a bad ankle but will be in shape to stick the whole game against the Packers. Sternaman's lineup isn't studded with All-American stars but he has got a club that has turned in wins consistently this season. In O'Donnell and Jack Rooney, Duluth has a pair of ends who are right at home grabbing forward passes. Johnson and Kelly have shown class galore at tackles; while Stein, Williams and Dunn hold down the jobs at guard. Williams is the big lineman that gave the Packers so much trouble last season. Madigan is a classy performer at center. In the backfield, aside from Sternaman, there is Wally Rooney, Method, Gilbert, and Harris, a quartet of stars...TICKETS READY THURSDAY: Ticketers for the Duluth game will be on sale at the usual places about town on Thursday night. The game is being talked up a lot and it is expected that a capacity crowd will be on hand to welcome the champion Packers back home again.

ROLLIE WILLIAMS WITH RACINE FOR CARDINALS' GAME

NOV 20 (Racine) - George Reutz of the Horlick-Legion football team announced today that signing of Rollie Williams who will play right in next Sunday's game with the Cardinals at Chicago. This game will mark Williams' entrance into the ranks of the professionals. Williams was captain of last year's University of Wisconsin eleven and was selected as an all American halfback last fall. Reutz denies that he has signed Gerber, recently ousted from the Badger team as a professional. He says that Jab Murray, under contract to the Racine Legion, but loaned to the Green Bay Packers, has been recalled to fill in the hole in the line.

CAL'S COMMENTS

NOV 20 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The Packers' kite is flying pretty high these days. Captain Lambeau's gridiron machine has set sail for the top of the heap in the pro league race and they are not very far from their goal. The Green Bay aggregation is looking better each start and they have a right to train their guns on the best teams in the county. With the state pigskin championship tucked away safely for another season, Captain Lambeau's squad is looking for bigger things and it is better than an even bet that they may get their chance.

DULUTH HOPES TO TAKE PACKERS INTO CAMP SUNDAY

NOV 21 (Duluth) - With "Little Joe" Sternaman's ankle again ready to withstand a full game, the Duluth Kellys are looking forward to a victory over the Packers at Green Bay on Sunday in a game which will decide the professional football championship of the Northwest. Duluth holds the title in Minnesota and Upper Michigan while the Packers rule supreme in Wisconsin. The Kellys are putting in an extensive week of drill in preparation for the Packer fray. This is the game of all games that Duluth wants to win and every man on the Kelly squad will go into the game at Green Bay determined to bring home a victory...IN GOOD SHAPE: The Duluth squad came out of the Chicago Cardinal fracas in good shape. Several of the players got banged up a bit but they will all be ready for the toot of the whistle on Sunday. Captain Sternaman is perfecting a defensive which he hopes will curb the famous aerial attack of the Badger state champions. Duluth figures that Cub Buck, the Bay punter, is going to meet his equal in Walt Harris, who does the punting for Manager Scanlon's team...LEAVE SATURDAY AFTERNOON: The Duluth squad, 20 strong, will leave for Green Bay over the Soo line Saturday afternoon. They will travel in a special Pullman and the car will be parked out at Neenah in order to give the players a good night's rest. The last lap of the Green Bay trip, from Neenah on, will be made by auto on Sunday morning. During their stay in Green Bay, the Duluth headquarters will be at the Beaumont hotel.

HAMMOND TO BE BUSY

NOV 21 (Hammond) - Doc Young's Hammond All Stars are facing a tough football schedule within the next few days if present negotiations are completed satisfactorily. Sunday, Hammond plays the Chicago Bears at Cubs park. Two weeks ago, the All Stars held the Cardinals to a 6 to 0 score and they hope to do even better against the Bruins. A game with the Packers, Badger state champions,

CAL'S COMMENTS

NOV 21 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - In the pro league game at Green Bay Sunday between the Duluth Kelly and the Packers, the spectators will have a chance to see two of the greatest field goal kickers on the gridiron in action. The Bay eleven has Cub Buck while the Northerners boast of "Little Joe" Sternaman. Each of these bootsmiths have shown an uncanny knack in driving the pigskin between the uprights. It should be interesting to see them match their skills in the weekend encounter.

RACINE MAY PASS UP ITS CLAIM ON MURRAY, BAY STAR

NOV 21 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The story from Racine about Manager Babe Reutz recalling Jab Murray from the Green Bay Packers created considerable gossip in football circles here overnight. The Legion account was a bit garbled, however, and the Murray affair was painted somewhat in a wrong light. Last year, Murray was released by the Packers and he joined the Racine club, playing brilliant football. Early this fall, Jabber was notified by the Legion management to report but he wrote Manager Reutz requesting his release. Murray has an extensive law practice in Marinette and, if he played with Racine, it would keep him away from home too much of the time. The Packers opened negotiations with Murray and the Racine management. Finally, an agreement was reached. Racine released Murray to Green Bay under the condition that anytime after November 11 he could be recalled by the Racine club for two game. Murray is the property of the Green Bay club. The Bay management has laid its case on the table before Racine, showing the shortage of players here and it is an even bet that the Legion will pass up its claim for Murray.

PACKER SQUAD WORKING OUT DAILY FOR SUNDAY'S CLASH WITH DULUTH'S FAST SQUAD

NOV 22 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The Packer squad is working out daily in preparation for Sunday's game with the Duluth Kellys, which will be staged at Bellevue park on Sunday afternoon for the professional football championship of the Northwest. The Big Bay Blues have pretty well recovered from last Sunday's skirmish at Milwaukee and when the whistle blows Sunday afternoon, every man on the squad will be in shape to turn back "Little Joe" Sternaman and his much-heralded Northerners...GETTING NEW STUFF: Determined to continue its winning streak, the Packers are putting in some new stuff this week with which they plan to spring a surprise on the Duluthians. A Kelly scout, it is said, watched the game at Milwaukee and Captain Lambeau is keen to mix 'em up a bit. Unless a hitch develops at the last minute, Hal Hanson, Ironwood's great fullback, will be in a Packer uniform again on Sunday. Hanson saw service twice against Duluth and his knowledge of the Northerners' plays will be a valuable asset to the Green Bay club, even if he is only sitting on the bench...EXPECT HUGE CROWD: Tickets will be on sale at the usual places about the town this evening. There has been a heavy demand for reservations and all indications point to another capacity turnout. Sunday's game will start promptly at 2 o'clock. The gates at the park will be opened at 12:30. Box seat ticket coupons marked No. 7 are good for Sunday's game only.

BULLETIN

NOV 22 (Columbus) - Bobby Cahn, Chicago, considered one of the best officials in the pro league, has been named by President Joe Carr to referee the Duluth-Green Bay Packer contest at Green Bay, Wis., on Sunday November 25. The league president considers this a very important game as the championship of the Northwest goes to the winner.

CAL'S COMMENTS

NOV 22 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Duluth and the Packers battle Sunday at Green Bay and those planning to attend the game want to remember that hostilities start half an hour earlier than usual. The kickoff will be at 2 o'clock.

EXPECT RECORD CROWD FOR DULUTH-PACKER GAME

NOV 23 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Hundreds of out-of-town fans are coming here Sunday to see the Packers and Duluth Kellys have it out in a game which will decide the professional football championship of the Northwest. The pigskin fray will be staged at Bellevue park and hostilities will start promptly at 2 o'clock. Bobbie Cahn of Chicago will referee. There is no end of interest in Upper Michigan over the Northwest title argument. Duluth knocked off Ironwood in two games and the Ironwood followers are coming here Sunday hoping to see Sternaman and Co. get knocked for a goal...APPEARANCE OF HANSON: The appearance of Hal Hanson in the Packers' lineup has also kicked up a lot of interest up north. Hanson is considered the greatest player that ever chased a pigskin on the range gridirons. Down through the valley, the Packers' followers are legion and they will all be here on Sunday to help welcome the champions back home. It is expected that a delegation of some hundred fans will represent Sturgeon Bay and the Cherry country at the title contest...FANS ARE EXCITED: Green Bay is showing more interest over the Duluth game than any contest since the Bears played here. Tickets were placed on sale last night and they were gobbled up like hot cakes. However, it is reported that some choice reservations are still available. Unless the dope all goes wrong, Bellevue park will be jammed to capacity Sunday to see the teams battle for the Northwest championship. The Packer squad is functioning perfectly in the daily practice tilts and the team will be hitting on "all eleven" when the whistle blows. Every man on the aggregation is determined to put the skids under Duluth and it will be a "rarin' to go" outfit that takes the field.

LEAVE ON SATURDAY

NOV 23 (Duluth) - With every man in the pink of condition, the Duluth team leaves here Saturday afternoon for Green Bay where Sunday they will tackle the famous Green Bay Packers, pro champions of Wisconsin. According to Captain Sternaman, Duluth is going to spring a surprise on the Badger title holders. About two dozen Duluth followers will make the trip to Green Bay.

CLEVELAND PLAYS CANTON BULLDOGS IN CRUCIAL FRAY

NOV 23 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Keck, the Princeton All-American, is the newest addition to the ranks of the Cleveland team. He played a great game against the Columbus Indians, coming through with a field goal of considerable yardage...Winters' work at quarter has been a feature of the Columbus season. He is a capable field general and is right at home picking his plays. Winters is a good handler of punts and is a fast man in the open field...Three games scheduled for last Sunday fell by the wayside, Akron did not play in Louisville, Racine's invasion of Toledo was called off, while Hammond and St. Louis deemed it best to remain idle...Rock Island is figuring on an eastern invasion. Thanksgiving Day, the Independents expect to play the Philadelphia Yellow Jackets and then they will journey to Buffalo to meet McNeil's aggregation December 2.

PACKERS BATTLE DULUTH AT BELLEVUE PARK SUNDAY

NOV 23 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Sunday at Bellevue park, two of the greatest football machines in the country, the Green Bay Packers and Duluth Kellys will match their skill in one of the most important games ever played at the Bay. The professional football championship of the Northwest is at stake. Duluth has "mopped up" Minnesota and Upper Michigan while the Packers rule supreme in Wisconsin. Aside from the title, the teams are battling for fifth place in the NFL percentage. The Packers are fifth up now with Duluth right close behind...EXPECT BUMPER THROG: One of the biggest crowds of the season is expected to witness the pigskin chasing exhibition. The Packers have been on the road for three weeks and a bumper throng will be on hand to welcome the Big Bay Blues back home again. Duluth is a much feared opponent. The Kellys have a hard hitting football machine headed by "Little Joe" Sternaman, one of the most famous players on the professional gridiron. Sternman is blessed with an educated toe and his kicking ability has marked up several victories for the Duluthians this fall...PACKERS IN SHAPE: The Packers are fit for the encounter. The Bay eleven has put in a strenuous week of practice and every man on the squad is in good physical condition. A win over Duluth means much to Green Bay's chances for future games and the players are determined to put another victory across. Bobby Cahn, one of the best officials in the pro league, will handle the game, which starts promptly at 2 o'clock (this is half an hour earlier than usual). Regulation periods of 15 minutes are scheduled. The doors at the park will open at 12:30 o'clock. Tickets will be on sale at The Press-Gazette office Sunday morning from 9:30 A.M. until noon. There has been a heavy demand for ducats but there are still some choice reservations available.

RESERVATIONS MUST BE TAKEN TONIGHT; PICK UP AT 9 P.M.

NOV 23 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Those having seats reserved for Sunday's game should claim them before 9 o'clock this evening as representatives of the club will gather in all uncalled tickets at this time. Tickets will be on sale at The Press-Gazette Sunday morning from 9:30 o'clock until noon. This is for the convenience of outsiders and others who did not secure tickets.

LEAGUE NOTES

NOV 23 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Dinger Doane more than lived up to his name in the Green Bay game. The former Tufts star banged his way 15 yards on line plunges for the first touchdown made against the Packers this season on straight football...Jab Murray is proving a valuable handy man for Green Bay. The Marquette graduate has seen service at guard and tackle and now is filling the bill nicely at end. Jabber gets over ground quickly for a 200 pounder...Traynor, a Buffalo boy, is doing a good job of halfbacking for the Bison All Americans. Buffalo has made switches behind the line but Traynor busts into every game and frequently makes the "Big Type"...The splendid defensive play of Sauers, the husky tackle, has helped keep the Dayton Triangle up and at 'em this fall. Sauers is blessed with a lot of football sense and he has the knack of getting right on top of the play...Montgomery, the Chicago Cardinal tackle, has developed into a valuable griddy for Chris O'Brien. The big lineman was off his feet in the early games but he is traveling at top speed right now, showing class galore...Harris has played consistent football for Duluth all season. He is of the plunging type of fullback and generally can get some distance on his rushes. He caused the Cardinals lots of uneasiness last Sunday...Flaherty, who serves as understudy to Manager George Halas of the Chicago Bears, is making good whenever given a chance to display his wares as a pigskin chaser. Flaherty is a big fellow and mighty handy nabbing passes...Duke Slater, Rock Island's giant tackle, stood up well under the smashing attack launched by the Bears. Slater took all that was coming to him and a little bit more but he was in there playing super football...Joe Guyon, answering the call of the pigskin, donned the moleskins last week in a futile attempt to help Jim Thorpe's Indians make some trouble for the Canton Bulldogs. Thorpe, Calac and Guyon couldn't do it alone...Carroll continues to perform brilliant for the Canton Bulldogs on a wing position. He is an adept receiver of the forward pass, being one of the main cogs in the Cantonians' brilliant air attack machine...Rollie Williams, one of the greatest footballers ever turned out at Wisconsin, has cast his lot with the Racine Legion and will cavort in the backfield for the Horlickmen Sunday in Chicago against the Cardinals...Football fans in Cleveland are licking their chops in anticipation of Sunday's game with Canton. Neither of these teams have tasted defeat this season and it should be a combat worth going miles to see...The fur will fly on Thanksgiving Day in Chicago when the Bears and Cardinals lock horns in their annual engagement. There is no love lost between these clubs and it is generally a battle royal all the way...There are several changes in Sunday's schedule. Racine plays the Cards instead of Hammond, who has been booked by the Bears in place of Rochester. Duluth plays at Green Bay, the Turkey Day game having been set forward.

CONTRACT IS SENT TO HAMMOND FOR "TURKEY DAY" GAME

NOV 23 (Columbus) - President Joe F. Carr of the NFL has given his approval to the proposed game between the Hammond All Stars and the Green Bay Packers at Green Bay, Wis., on Thanksgiving Day, Thursday November 29...A contract has been sent to Doc Young, manager of the Hammond All Stars, calling for the appearance of his team in Green Bay on Thanksgiving Day, November 29. The Green Bay management was in conversation with Young over the long distance and he accepted the Packer offer for a fracas here on Turkey day. He signed acceptance of the agreement to bring his team here next Thursday is looked for in every mail. Hammond is a corking good eleven. The All Stars have played a number of games this season and have shown class galore. Several weeks ago the Cardinals were mighty fortunate to nose out a 6 to 0 win over Young's hirelings. In Tar Williams and Sol Butler, Hammond boasts of two of the most famous colored stars.

CAL'S COMMENTS

NOV 23 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Doc Young, the manager of the Hammond team, evidently thinks that Green Bay is situated way up in the woods. The other night while talking over the long distance phone with Lambeau, the Packer captain. Young said: "Say Curley, go out in the backyard and shoot a deer. Nothing would please me better than a venison steak Thanksgiving night." Lambeau generally tried to keep on good terms with the pro magnates but he had to pass the buck on this request...There is going to be quite some football game in Cleveland on Sunday when Canton plays here. The Cleveland team has a wealthy backer and he is going the limit to put a team on the field that will send the Bulldogs home yelping. The Cleveland management has bought Pete Stinchomb from Columbus; secured Stanley Keck from the Pittsburgh Collegians and has induced Red Roberts, the former Center star, to come out of retirement. President Joe Carr of the NFL should turn Sherlock Holmes and give the Clevelanders' salary list the once over.

*Both Teams Reported Fit
For Championship Clash;
Big Crowd Will See Game*

WITH DULUTH

'MUT' WILLIAMS

In Williams, Duluth has a husky line man who has given the Packers considerable trouble in former meetings. Williams is a big fellow of the 'Go Get 'Em' kind, and he would rather chase the pigskin than eat.

He will play guard tomorrow and it is a sure bet that the sorrel topped griddler will bob into the limelight quite often during the afternoon.

FACES PACKERS

JOHNNY O'DONNELL

O'Donnell, Duluth's brilliant end, was highly praised by Chicago sport writers for his pigskin chasing exhibition against the Cardinals last Sunday at White Sox park.

The Kelly star is right at home grabbing forward passes and is credited with being a demon on the defense. O'Donnell is a scrappy footballer and always travels at top speed from first to last whistle.

DULUTH CENTER

JACK MADIGAN.

The Duluth Kelleys are blessed with a scrappy line. Possibly the 'Northerners' do not have as much poundage as some of the other teams in the Pro league race but what their forwards lack in weight, they make up in aggressiveness.

Jack Madigan is the 'pepper box' of the line. The scrappy Irishman hasn't made a bad pass all season from the center position. Madigan graduated from St. Thomas college where he starred on the gridiron for three years. He tips the beam at about 185 pounds.

DULUTH STAR

JOE STERNAMAN.

In "Little Joe" Sternaman, Duluth has one of the greatest pigskin stars doing stunts on the professional gridiron. He is a brother of the famous 'Dutch' Sternaman of the Chicago Bears.

Sternaman is coach and captain of the Duluth team. He is a triple threat man. His big specialty is field goal kicking and he has won four games for the Northerners with his educated toe.
