STERNAMAN'S GOAL FROM FIELD BEATS PACKERS 3-0

*Fumble In Second Quarter
Paves Way For Place Kick;
Chicagoans Lucky To Win*

GAME RECAP (GREEN BAY PRESS-GAZETTE)

(GREEN BAY) - Dutch Sternaman's educated toe kicked the Chicago Bears to a 3 to 0 victory over the Green Bay Packers in a pro league game Sunday afternoon at Bellevue park before the largest crowd that ever attended a sport encounter in Northeastern Wisconsin. There were exactly 4,451 paid admissions. This included 200 members of the "Knothole Gang". A costly fumble by Green Bay towards the close of the second quarter paved the way for the Chicagoans' score. This break in the game was just one of the many which went against Captain Lambeau's squad. Horseshoes aren't supposed to be part of gridiron equipment but the Bears sure had 'em in Sunday's fracas.

JINX IS ON

About the middle of the first quarter, Gavin was playing a punt safely. The pigskin took an awkward bounce, grazed Gavin's hand and a Bearite hopped on the ball. This was just another instance when the jinx appeared to be holding forth. The greater part of the play was in the Bears' territory. Twice during the game, the Packers were far enough in the Chicagoan's danger zone to attempt field goals but both tries went astray. Right in cold figures the Packers piled up the yardage amounting to 166 while the Bears gained 103 yards.

BUCK BOOT 'EM

Cub Buck had his kicking shoes on. The Packers' husky tackle got 'em off in "Casey" fashion. He outbooted the famous Hanney, last year's Indiana star, by at least ten yards on every exchange. Several of Buck's punts traveled over 55 yards. When the Bears pranced on the field, a chorus of "oh's" greeted them. Every man on the Bruin squad looked as big as a house and garbed in their orange sweaters, they sure sized up like giants. The Bears sure are a 100 percent in huskiness. But the Packers weren't overawed. They settled right down to work and gave the Bears just as stiff an argument as they will bump up against this year. The much flaunted Chicago line, rated the best in professional football, got all they wanted from the Packer forwards, and perhaps a little bit more.

FORWARD PASS THREAT

The Packers threatened continually. The forward pass threat was always in evidence and the Bears were kept busy knocking down forwards. The visitors' aerial attack didn't amount to much. They completed but a pair of hurls, one of which, however, Hanney captured way down near the Packer goal. This came immediately after Basin fumbled in the second quarter and was followed shortly by Sternaman's field goal. The Bears didn't have much on the offense but their mighty line more than made up for the weakness behind it. Healey, Blacklock and Hunk Anderson were in the midst of every play while Hanney turned in quite some considerable job on end.

PLAY BRILLIANT GAME

The Packers performed brilliantly. Gavin showed his class at fullback, while Mathys starred at quarter, despite the fact that the Bears covered him like a tent when the forward pass was in action. Lambeau performed superbly while Basing and Mills showed their class at the other half. Dewey Lyle was right in his glory battling the Bears. Wheeler turned in a swell exhibition at the other end until forced to retire on account of injuries. Murray replaced him and filled the bill. The Bay center trio, Woodin, Gardner and Nieman, showed class galore, Woodin playing his best game in a Packer uniform.

EVERY SEAT TAKEN

Never before have so many spectators witnessed a game in this city. The gates opened at noon and before one o'clock there was a thousand spectators in the park. They came in by droves and long before the kickoff, every seat was taken in and standing room was at a premium. Every reserved seat was sold out long before noon. It was an orderly crowd and there was no disturbances of any kind to mar the afternoon's entertainment. Some of the spectators perched themselves on the fence so as to get a vantage view of the field of play. In some places, the crowd stood about 'steen deep back of the fence along the gridiron. The Legion band broke loose before the game and between halves. Their efforts drew a big hand of the spectators, "Barney Google" and "On, Wisconsin" being equally enjoyed.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

OCT 15 (Marinette) - Two men were killed and two injured when a touring car carrying eight men from Ishpeming, Mich., collided with a furniture truck on Highway 38, two miles from Crivitz, Wis., last night. The dead are Walfred Anderson, 30, and Fritz Ring, 28, both of Ishpeming. The injured are Hjalmer Solberg and Reuben Stevens. The Ishpeming party was returning from the Bear-Packer football game at Green Bay and were traveling north. The truck, driven by Herbert Shiek, Joliet, Ill., was coming from the north when the accident occurred. Fred Langes, driver of the touring car, Fred and Arthur West, and Ben Blocken, occupants of the Michigan car, are being held in jail here pending the outcome of the coroner's inquest to be held today. Conflicting stories of the cause of the accident are given by the drivers of the two cars. Langes, driver of the car, says the lights of the truck were dimmed and that he failed to see it in time to avert the crash. The driver of the truck claims the touring car was traveling on the wrong side of the road. The injured are in a hospital here.

CAL'S COMMENTS

OCT 16 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Once in awhile a sport scribe "fumbles", just like a football player. We did in the story of the Bear-Packer game. In handing out bouquets to the Green Bay players, we stubbed our toe on Earps. Jug wasn't mentioned and he deserved just as much credit as the other players. It is lucky for the Bears that he didn't have two more arms to use...The Packers' tilt with the Milwaukee Badgers on Sunday should be another thrilling pigskin combat. The Cream City aggregation under the leadership of Jimmy Conzelman have been showing lots of class on the gridiron and as yet they haven't tasted defeat this season.

MILWAUKEE BADGERS HERE SUNDAY TO FACE PACKERS

OCT 16 (Milwaukee) - The Milwaukee Badgers will travel to Green Bay this weekend where they will meet the Packers, Wisconsin state champs, Sunday afternoon at Bellevue park in a pro league game. This contest is considered one of the most important on the Badgers' schedule and Captain Jimmy Conzelman, the former Rock Island star, is working his squad daily so as to have them in the pink of condition for the Packers. Aside from Smith, who suffered an injured shoulder in last Sunday's game against Racine, the Badgers are in good physical shape for the game, which is one in a series for professional football honors in Wisconsin...NOT YET BEATEN: The Badgers haven't as yet tasted defeat this season. They have participated in three games, knocking off Jim Thorpe's Indians and battling to tie scores with Pete Stinchomb's Columbus eleven and the Racine Legion. When Conzelman took charge of the club this fall, he immediately started a house cleaning. Aside from Conzelman, only Dinger Doane, fullback, and Gyp Mooney, halfback, are again in moleskins...HAVE FORMER BEARS: Center Larsen and guard Smith were purchased from the Chicago Bears. End Sachs was secured from the Chicago Cardinals and Peaches Nadolny was secured from Green Bay via the waiver route. Among the other stars in the Badger lineup are: Blailock from Baylor U, Underwood of Rice Institute; Wenke from Nebraska; Winkleman from Arkansas; Turned and Strickland from Lombard; Erickson, an All-American halfback from Washington and Jefferson; and McGinnes, last year's captain captain and star lineman at Marquette. Underwood, the big guard from Rice Institute, is a second "Cub Buck" when it comes to weight as he tips the beam at 265 pounds. Larson, the former Notre Dame star, who plays center, saw service with the Packers in 1921....EXPECT TOUGH PICKING: The Badgers realize they will have tough picking against the Packers but Conzelman is confident that he can build up a defense which will curb the Bays' famous forward pass a ticket. A Badger scout saw the Packers play last Sunday against the Chicago Bears and he came back loud in praise for the Green Bay Packers.

MILWAUKEE PRO ELEVEN LAUDED BY SCRIBE

OCT 16 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - "Our pigskin fans are just beginning to realize that Milwaukee is represented by one of the best professional football teams in the country. The team has not been defeated in four starts against tough opponents and it shows more class every time it starts. Because Jimmy Conzelman violated precedent and gathered a squad of youngsters, some of them unknown in this section of the country, little consideration was given the team at the start of the season. However, Conzelman's move has been justified by the fine football played by his flock of youthful stars, who put more of the real college spirit in their play than any professional eleven we have ever seen. Complaint has been made that the pro games lack color. Some of the teams do play in a methodical machine-like manner, but not the Badgers. They are full of fight all the time. Sunday, Milwaukee plays the Packers at Green Bay. It should be some battle." Manning Vaughan in Milwaukee Sentinel.

PACKERS MAKE READY TO DEFEND STATE GRID TITLE

OCT 17 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The second game of the series for the Wisconsin professional football championship will be played here Sunday afternoon when the Green Bay Packers have it out with the Milwaukee Badgers. The initial contest of the pigskin race was played at Milwaukee last week when Jimmy Conzelman's team played a tie with the Racine Legion. The Packers will be defending their championship honors which they won last season in the playoff game at Milwaukee from Racine by the score of 14 to 0...LOOK EVENLY MATCHED: If the dope bucket can be counted on for any real information, the teams look evenly matched. Two weeks ago, the Bears beat Racine, 3 to 0, and last Sunday the Chicagoans took the Packers into camp by the same score and Racine and Milwaukee played to a tie. Milwaukee is coming here with a swell football machine. Jimmy Conzelman's club is able to give any of them a tough battle. As yet, this season the Packers' opponents on Sunday haven't lost a game. They won their opener against Thorpe's Indians and battled knotted counts with the Columbus Indians and Racine Legion...PACKERS MAKE READY: The Packers are making ready for the Milwaukee invasion. The squad came out of the grueling Bear tilt in pretty good shape and every player will be ready for the whistle when it blows on Sunday. Captain Lambeau's aggregation isn't underestimating the strength of their opponents and daily practice will be the rule. Tickets will be on sale Thursday night at the usual places about town and another crowd is looked for. There has been a healthy demand for reservations from the out of towners.

CAL'S COMMENTS

OCT 17 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - But the thrills weren't along in the college games. Erickson, the Milwaukee Badger half, pulled one in the Racine game. Mintum, the Legion center, broke through, blocked punt and, scooping up the pigskin, started for the Milwaukee goal. He had a clear field ahead and two of his teammates were running alongside. Out of the scrimmage dated Erickson. He was eighteen yards behind but behind but fleet of foot and he grabbed the wobbling Mintum on Milwaukee's 15 yard

SPORT GOSSIP

OCT 17 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Exactly 4,451 spectators paid their way into the Packer-Chicago Bears league football game at Green Bay last Sunday. This is the largest crowd that ever attended an athletic contest in this part of the state. It was several hundred bigger than the Pails-Sheboygan ball game.

COMING HERE STRONG

OCT 18 (Milwaukee) - Jimmy Conzelman's Milwaukee Badgers will be in the "pink" when they battle the Packers on Sunday in a pro league game. Every man on the squad is in good physical trim. It was feared Smith's injured shoulder would keep him out of the pastime but the big guard claims he will be on the job when the whistle blows. The Badgers may leave here Saturday afternoon so as to get a good rest in Green Bay the night before the game.

KEEP EAR TO GROUND

OCT 18 (Racine) - Racine football fans will keep their ears to the ground on Sunday, anxious to find out what is happening at Green Bay when the Packers and Milwaukee meet. The Legion played a tie with Milwaukee last Sunday and October 28 journey to the Bay to tilt with the Packers.

CAL'S COMMENTS

OCT 18 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - Reports from Milwaukee have it that Jimmy Conzelman, captain and coach of the Badgers, is putting his charges through a week of intensive drill for Sunday's game against the Packers. Conzelman is attempting to perfect a defense against the Bays' aerial attack. The Milwaukee leader has played against the Packers many games and he has always had his trouble putting a crimp in the Packers' forward passing. Maybe he will use about 'steen men on the secondary defense.

PACKERS WORKING INDOOR FOR MILWAUKEE CONTEST

OCT 18 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - A healthy demand for seats for Sunday's football game between the Packers and Milwaukee is being reported and, if the Weather Man gets through "shedding tears" sometime before Sunday, another capacity crowd is looked for. The game will be played rain or shine. There is a lot of interest in the state championship series. The Packers hold the gridiron title now and they hope to take another step towards the championship again in Sunday's fray...WILL BE TOUGH GAME: However, it will be a tough game. The Milwaukee club is coming here with a classy aggregation of pigskin chasers, headed by the famous Jimmy Conzelman, who starred at Rock Island for several seasons. Conzelman has a well balanced team blessed with a smashing offensive and sturdy defense. The Packers are not letting the damp spell halt their daily drills. Indoor practice at the park armory is the rule and the squad is working up some new stuff to spring on the Badgers.

CAL'S COMMENTS

OCT 19 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - There's more than one way to skin a cat. Rain has crimped the Packers' outdoor drills during the past two days but they have practiced just the same, making use of the board gridiron at the park armory. These indoor workouts are just as strenuous enough to keep the players on edge for their state title fray on Sunday here against the Milwaukee Badgers...Mathys, former Indiana quarterback, is playing super football for the Green Bay Packers. He is a superb receiver of the forward pass and his ability to clutch the pigskin has gained many a yard for the Bay eleven.

PACKERS LOOKING IN GOOD SHAPE FOR SUNDAY'S GAME WITH MILWAUKEE BADGERS

OCT 19 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The Packers staged a lively workout this morning in preparation for Sunday's pro league game against the Milwaukee Badgers, which will be played at Bellevue park. The played displayed a lot of pep in their workout and the physical condition of the squad seemed superb. The men are rarin' to go and it is a good bet that Jimmy Conzelman's Milwaukee team will get a warm welcome...SPEED UP OFFENSIVE: The Packers will use a new signal code in Sunday's game. This change will tend to speed up the offensive somewhat. Captain Lambeau is pulling every string possible to have the team on edge as he is determined to tuck away Sunday's game in the win column. Milwaukee is going to give the Packers a lot of trouble. At least, that is the dope coming up from the Cream City. Jimmy Conzelman has been driving his footballers to the limit all week and he has been specializing on a forward pass defense, which he hopes will blanket the Packers' aerial method of gaining ground...BIG CROWD EXPECTED: With the rainy spell over with, indications look to another bumper throng at Sunday's game. Tickets which were placed on sale Thursday night were quickly snapped up. There has been a big demand for ducats from the out of towners. Sunday's game marks the initial attempt this year of the Packers to defend the championship honors. There is keen rivalry between Racine, Milwaukee and Green Bay for this coveted title. Several hundred followers of the Badgers will follow the Milwaukee team here for the clash with the Packers. OCT 19 (Columbus) - Rochester ran up against a flock of touchdowns at Rock Island, and when the final whistle blew, the Easterners were buried under 56 to 0. The Minneapolis backfielder got away with some classy open field running and also handled punts like a big leaguer.

MILWAUKEE BADGERS FACE PACKERS HERE ON SUNDAY

OCT 20 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The undefeated Milwaukee Badgers, headed by the famous Jimmy Conzelman, clash with the Green Bay Packers here Sunday afternoon in a pro league football game at Bellevue park. The pigskin battle will start promptly at 2:30 o'clock. Periods of 15 minute duration is scheduled and Jim Holloway of Chicago, one of the best officials in the game, will referee. The contest will be staged rain or shine...DEFEND STATE CHAMPIONSHIP: In the tilt against Milwaukee, the Packers will be defending state championship honors. Each year a triangle race for the gridiron supremacy is held between Milwaukee, Racine and Green Bay. Last season, the Packers won the title in a playoff game at Milwaukee where they defeated Racine, 14 to 0. But one game has been played in the State series this season. Last Sunday, Racine and Milwaukee played to a tie. A week from Sunday the Racine Legion plays here...STILL A 1.000 PCT: Milwaukee is still a 1.000 pct. in the pro league rating. The Badgers have yet to be beat. In their opening game, they scalped Jim Thorpe's Indians and then they played tie games with Columbus and Racine on the last two Sundays. Conzelman has a classy aggregation and they play a fighting brand of football. In Dinger Doane, Milwaukee has a plunging fullback who can hold his own with the best. Erickson, former All American at W. and J., is a superb halfback while Larsen at center is considered a crackerjack. The other players on the squad are way above the average...PACKERS IN SHAPE: The Packers are all set to make things interesting for the Badgers. Captain Lambeau has put his squad through a course of sprouts and it is probable that Green Bay will cut loose with some fancy stuff. No changes in the lineup are contemplated. The squad is in good physical shape. Gates at the park will open promptly

CAL'S COMMENTS

OCT 20 (Green Bay Press-Gazette) - The pigskin tilt between Milwaukee and Green Bay tomorrow should be a humdinger. The Bay eleven is considered past masters at the aerial attack while the Badgers claim to have a defense which will checkmate this method of offense. There would be plenty of open football on tap with thrills galore for the spectators. Conzelman, the Milwaukee leader, is a shrewd field general and he can be counted on to pull everything in the book.

In Blalock, Underwood and 'Dinger' Doane, the Milwaukee Badgers, who play here tomorrow against the Green Bay Packers, have a trio of gridiron stars. Doane is a veteran of many seasons and he seems to get better with age. Blalock and Underwood, the tackles, are youngsters from colleges down below the Mason-Dixie line. This is their first year in pro football but they have shown class galore against Thorpe's Indians, the Columbus Indians, and Racine Legion. Next to 'Cub' Buck, Underwood is the heaviest man in Pro football. He tips the beam at 265 pounds.
